CHALLENGING OUTDOOR PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

INSTRUCTOR LEVEL I TRAINING (FACILITATOR)

COPE Training is a process that starts with a weekend at the Roy & Frances Rea COPE Center at Camp Trevor Rees-Jones November 20 - 22.

Training will be provided on COPE Purpose, Standards and methods, and both low course and high course elements. The program includes actual participation in the elements as well as a hands-on training experience (have fun like your Scouts for a couple of days). Class size: Minimum of 8, maximum of 16 students.

This will be an opportunity for Adults, Scouts age 16 and older and Venturers of any age to get trained in the BSA Project COPE. Those over 18 can earn Instructor Level 1 certification, while those not yet 18 can become a Facilitator in Training (FIT).

This is a great course for those that are interested in becoming a part of the Circle 10 COPE staff. The goal for this course is to ensure that you can safely and effectively facilitate a COPE course under the direction of a trained National Camp School Director or a council trained Level 2 Instructor at either the Trevor Rees-Jones or Camp Wisdom COPE Courses.

Cost: The course fee is $60.00 and covers meals for the weekend, facilities, and participant materials.

This is an overnight course. Please bring the following along:

Equipment: Sleeping bag, rain gear (no ponchos), pants or shorts (no jeans or athletic shorts), shirts, closed toed shoes, bug repellent, sunscreen, sunglasses, water bottle or hydration system. If you have a climbing helmet and/or harness, you may bring your own, but course staff must inspect and approve it for use on the course.

Course prerequisites: Be in good health (bring Part A & B of the Boy Scout Physical Form), physically able to spend several hours outdoors. The course terrain is uneven, the training will require several hours of walking and standing. Vehicles are not permitted on the course except for emergencies. Previous experience with COPE is not required.
